Intrastate Authority For Freight Motor Carriers (Other Than Household Goods)

In Re: Case Number: 95-01190
New Prime, Inc.: Application for Authority to Operate as an Intrastate Carrier

ORDER

This matter is before the Tennessee Public Service Commission upon the application of the above-mentioned company for authority to operate as an intrastate motor freight carrier (other than household goods). Upon submission of a complete application, the requisite fees, proof of sufficient insurance, and a demonstration of compliance with state safety regulations; the Tennessee Public Service Commission concludes that this application for intrastate freight motor carrier authority should be granted as provided herein:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the above-mentioned company shall be issued a certificate of convenience and necessity and/or a contract hauler's permit to transport freight (other than household goods) to all points in Tennessee in intrastate commerce.
2. That said company shall comply with all applicable Commission rules and regulations governing intrastate commerce.
3. That any party aggrieved with the Commission's decision in this matter may file a Petition for Reconsideration with the Commission within ten (10) days from and after the date of this Order.
4. That any party aggrieved with the Commission's decision in this matter has the right of judicial review by filing a Petition for Review in the Tennessee Court of Appeals, Middle Section, within sixty (60) days from and after the date of this Order.
